

Brett Carter

b a r i t o n e

Die Passagierin - 2024

"Brett Carter sang the role of Tadeusz very expressively. His flexible baritone voice sounded wonderfully supple in the love duet with Marta, while he went for a heroic flourish in the scene with Lisa, when Tadeusz rejects her dangerous offer of another rendezvous with his lover."

Opernglas Magazine

The Pirates of Penzance - 2024

"Brett Carter obviously has a lot of fun with this role and he always caused spontaneous laughter among the audience. In addition, the artist emphatically won over the audience with his confidently conducted and warmly timbred baritone."

Opernglas Magazine

The Pirates of Penzance - 2023

"Vokal wie spielerisch wirft Brett Carter den Piratenkönig in raumgreifende Positur."

Concerti

Australian Baritone Brett Carter studied Classical Guitar and Voice at the Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts before becoming a member of the Australian Opera Studio. After receiving Scholarships at the National Academy of Music in Melbourne, the Cincinnati Music Festival in Lucca, the Young Artist Program with Opera Queensland, he then received first prize in the German Australian Opera Grant and from 2008 - 2014 was a member of the Hessischen Staatstheater in Wiesbaden.

His roles with the company included Mozart's Papageno, Guglielmo and Masetto, Rossini's Figaro, Donizetti's Malatesta, Puccini's Schaunard and Ping, Strauss' Falke and Harlekin, Kurt Weills Bill (Aufstieg und Fall der Stadt Mahagonny), Monteverdi's Ulisse (Il ritorno d'Ulisse in patria), Cavalli's Mercurio (La Calisto) and Ravel's Ramiro (L'Heure Espagnole). During this time he was also engaged at Staatsoper Stuttgart, Oper Frankfurt, the National Theatre Mannheim and Melbourne Opera.

Since the 2014/2015 season, Brett Carter is a member of the Staatstheater in Mainz. There his roles have included Figaro (Il Barbiere di Siviglia), Alloro (Perelà), Valentin (Faust), the Baritone in Carmina Burana, Marcello (La Bohème), Demetrius in Britten's A Midsummer Nights Dream, Rodrigo (Don Carlo), sowie Leander (Die Liebe zu den drei Orangen). In 2018 he created the role of Odysseus in the world Premier of Argo for the Schwetzingen Music Festival.

In the last 3 Seasons Brett Carter performed the roles of Il Conte Almaviva in Le nozze di Figaro, Pavel in Al gran sole carico d'amore, Silvio in Pagliacci, Ottokar in Der Freischütz and the title role as Nabucco in Nabucco. Further Highlights also included his interpretation of Tadeusz in the co-production of Die Passagierin with Oper Graz. In the following Season 2024/2025 he will make his role debüts as Escamillo in Carmen, Faninal in Der Rosenkavalier, Der Vater in Hänsel und Gretel and as William in The Fall of the House of Usher at the Staatstheater Mainz.